

This Way, Please!

by Allison Gilliam

A sign is made with the words, This Way, and an arrow underneath it. It should look like an official road sign and placed on a stand made of a base with a 2 x 4 nailed to it to hold the sign. Paint the stand black and place it in the front of the sanctuary where all can see.

Voice I: What is this? Now, what have you done!

Voice II: It's a sign. Angie made it.

Voice I: I can see that. There's always some sign up around here. Remember NO GRUMBLING ALLOWED? That one stopped you in your tracks!

Voice II: Well, this one should, too.

Voice I: This Way—(hands gesturing) Where is it leading?

Voice II: Hopefully, it's the sign of all of our lives. Our lives should be pointing the world to Christ. The stories of our lives should be an example of how Christ is dwelling in us and using us to draw others to Christ.

Voice I: Hmm. . .I'll listen closely this morning to how we do this. (Looks at audience) I know you will, too.

This skit was intended to introduce a sermon using various parables to show that Jesus used life stories to teach the people. Likewise, our lives should be pointing the way to Jesus. It was done with my pastor, John Wheatley, First Baptist Church, Valley Mills, Tx.
